CARL MORRIS THE VICTOR

WINS FIGHT WITH SCHRECK IN SIXTH ROUND—ENGINEER IN FINE TRIM.

12,000 WITNESS FIGHT

Heavy Odds Offered on Morris—Flynn Posts $1,000 Challenge to Meet Morris.

Sapulpa, Ok., March 28.—An Oklahoma pugilist, Carl Morris, this afternoon knocked out Mike Schreck of Cincinnati in the sixth round of a scheduled fifteen-round bout. Nearly 12,000 people witnessed the battle.

One minute and two seconds of the sixth round had been fought when the big ex-engineer landed a vicious right hook to Schreck's jaw. Schreck reeled, staggered and fell heavily to the canvas. Slowly Referee Eddie Cochrane counted off the seconds. Schreck could not rise and at the tenth tick of the time piece he was counted out. It was Morris' fight from the sounding of the gong of the first round until he had beaten his man down to the canvas, bleeding and dazed. Morris forced the fight, rushing his man about the ring, dealing terrific blows and landing, apparently, at will.

He took his punishment, such as Schreck was able to inflict, apparently without effect.

Schreck's Showing Poor.

In the face of the fighting exhibited by the big ex-engineer, Schreck made a miserable showing. He did not land more than eight or nine clear blows, which lacked steam, and hardly were felt by Morris, who rushed, parried, struck, side-stepped and got away with a coolness and precision that held the admiration of all.

Morris was in great fighting trim. His work today showed that he has improved wonderfully the past few weeks. He fought with both hands, guarded himself well and his foot work was much speedier than in his past battles. Heretofore he has appeared somewhat lumbering and clumsy and he had poor use of his left arm.

Fight fans from all sections of the state and many from other states journeyed here to witness the battle. Curiosity seemed to impel the crowd as much as any other motive, the desire to see Morris in action. There were few who doubted Schreck would be defeated, and consequently it was a Morris crowd.

There was all kinds of Morris money in sight, but there was practically no betting at the ringside for the reason that no Schreck supporters could be found. The odds offered were 5 to 1 on Morris to win, and in some instances the more enthusiastic made better offers. There were a few bets laid on Schreck's ability to finish the fifth round at 2 to 1.

Flynn Posts $1,000 Challenge.

Before the fight started Jim Flynn posted $1,000 to meet Morris. His challenge was received with uproarious applause and the crowd called for Ufer, Morris' manager. Ufer was introduced, but did not say whether he would accept Flynn's challenge. Billy Stone, former manager of Morris and promoter of today's fight, was introduced and thanked the press for the part it has contributed in assuring the success of the fight.

Several other fighters were introduced, including Jess Willard of Oklahoma City, Pete Shaughnessy, Harry Gilmore, manager of Packey McFarland and Harry Wuest, Morris' sparring partner. Jim Barry then was introduced. He challenged the winner for $1,000 on the side and included Flynn in the challenge.

Principals Appear.

When the crowd saw that the principals and their attendants were approaching the ring cheer upon cheer rent the air. There was but little delay. Morris looked much the better man as the pair of fighters faced each other in the ring. He showed the effects of his hard training. He looked much heavier than Schreck.

The gong sounded, the fighters shook hands and a bowl of delight went from the arena as they squared away and the backward step of the referee indicated that the biggest ring battle ever fought in Oklahoma was about to begin. If there was ever any doubt in the minds of the spectators about the outcome it was dissipated after the first two rounds of the fighting. It was plain the big fellow had things his own way, and it became only a question of how long the Cincinnati man could stand up under the powerful blows rained upon him.

Fight by rounds:

First Round.

The fighters rushed at each other. Morris led off with a hard right swing for the head, but missed. They clinched, Morris landing lefts to the body. The referee broke them and Morris drove a right and left swing to the head. Another clinch followed and in coming out of it the ex-engineer swung another right to the head and followed it with a right to the stomach and left to the head. Schreck swung wildly with his left and missed. Morris put a left and a right to the face.

Second Round.

Morris led with a left to the head. Schreck missed a right to the head. Morris drove three rights to Schreck's stomach, visibly affecting the "Flying Dutchman." Morris peppered Schreck's face with rights and lefts, the Cincinnati man being in distress. Morris drove two lefts to the head and then pounded Schreck's stomach with two more punches. They mixed exchanging rights and lefts. They exchanged rights to the head. Morris sent a stiff right body punch home. Schreck put an upper cut to Morris' chin. Morris landed a hard right to the head as the round ended.

Third Round.

Morris was at his man quickly, sending a left to the head and short right to the jaw. Schreck sent right to the head and received a similar blow in return. Morris shot rights and lefts to the head and stomach, distressing his opponent greatly. Schreck drove a light right to the head and Morris put a left to the stomach. Morris floored Schreck with a left to the jaw. Morris was fighting his opponent the second he regained his feet, driving a right to the stomach and a left and right to the head. Morris sent three rights and a left to the head, Schreck trying to cover up. Morris put a right and left to the wind. Schreck tapped Morris on the head with a right. Morris drove rights and lefts to Schreck's jaw. Schreck retaliated with a right to the jaw. Morris put Schreck down with a right to the head. Schreck quickly regained his feet, only to go down again from a body punch. Schreck was on his knees when the round ended.

Fourth Round.

Morris missed a left to the head. He then landed a right to the head and received his right in exchange. Morris swung his right to the wind and a moment later put his right to Schreck's face. They clinched and Morris pounded Schreck's kidneys. Coming out of the clinch Morris put a left and a right to the head, rocking Schreck. Schreck again put a left to the head. With a hard left to the head Morris knocked Schreck through the ropes. He was up at the count of three, but only to run into a stiff right to the head. Schreck's face was badly swollen, due to repeated right and left punches. Again Morris punched Schreck's head with a left and right. Schreck hooked a right to Morris' face, but the ex-engineer brushed it off with a smile. Schreck was in great pain when he went to his corner.

Fifth Round.

They exchanged light left taps. Schreck swung a left to the face. Morris drove his right to the head and then to the stomach. Schreck came back with a right to the body. Morris jolted Schreck with a right to the jaw and before Schreck had ceased staggering from the effects of the blow pounded in a volley of rights and lefts to the head. Morris' nose was bleeding slightly from a glancing blow. Schreck planted a stiff right to the jaw and Morris drove in a right and left to the head. They clinched. Morris put Schreck through the ropes with a right to the jaw. The round ended with Morris beating his opponent with both hands, seemingly at will. The end was in sight.

Sixth Round.

Schreck rushed Morris, landing right and left to the body. They clinched and Morris again beat Schreck's kidneys. Schreck landed a right to the jaw as they came out of close quarters. Morris rushed his opponent and began peppering in rights and lefts to the head and body as he pleased. After the round had gone one minute and two seconds Morris hooked a hard right to Schreck's jaw and the Cincinnati man took the count.

Golobie to Start Paper at Guthrie.

Guthrie, Okla., March 28.—John Golobie, editor of the State Register here, former managing editor of the State Capital for fifteen years and recent republican aspirant for congressional honors, will launch a daily paper here in the near future to fill the vacancy caused Monday when the State Capital advertising contracts and subscription lists were sold by Frank M. Greer to the Daily Leader, democratic. Golobie will enter the morning field and the paper will be republican politically.

SUPREME JUDGES SELECT COMMISSIONERS

Guthrie, Ok., March 28.—Five of the six members of the State Supreme court commission, created by the recent legislature, were agreed upon in a conference of the five justices of the supreme court late today and announced tonight, one from each supreme court judicial district as follows:

Phillip Brewer of McAlester, appointed by Chief Justice Turner; M. E. Rosser of Poteau, appointed by Justice Williams; J. B. A. Robertson of Chandler, appointed by Justice Kane; J. F. Sharp of Purcell, appointed by Justice Hayes, and John B. Harrison of Sa re, appointed by Justice Dunn. The sixth member, to be appointed at large over the state, has not yet been announced. The commission holds for two years, each member getting $3,600 per annum, the purpose of the commission being to assist the state supreme court in clearing the congested docket, which in great part was inherited when the two territories were united in statehood.

Will Await Capital Decision.

The terms of the appointees will not begin for perhaps sixty to ninety days because of the state capital removal case now pending in the United States supreme court. The supreme court does not desire to organize the court either at Guthrie or Oklahoma City and then perhaps make it necessary for the court to change following the capital decision. The intervening period will also give the appointees sufficient time to clean up all private legal business so they can devote their time thereafter to their new duties.

Altogether there were twenty-six applicants for the positions, including Fred Branson of Muskogee, chairman of the democratic state committee, and former congressman Elmer Fulton of Oklahoma City.

Shawnee Gets Postal Bank.

Washington, March 28.—Postmaster-General Hitchcock Tuesday designated forty-five additional postoffices as postal savings depositories in as many states and territories, mostly at industrial centers where there are many wage earners. It is Mr. Hitchcock's intention to confine the offices as nearly as possible to industrial centers really needing such banking facilities. Particularly giving consideration to geographical location, postal receipts, foreign money order business and general efficiency of postmasters.

Among the new offices designated are: Bisbee, Ariz.; Helena, Ark.; Manhattan, Kan.; Hannibal, Mo.; Shawnee, Okla.; and Temple, Tex.

Mrs. S. F. Cantwell, who has been here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Kerr, returned to Lawton this morning.

FAREWELL RECEPTION TENDERED REV. AND MRS. WHITE

Yesterday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sledge, a farewell reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. J. D. White. It was well attended both by members of the Presbyterian church and friends from other churches. A very delightful evening was spent and it was made all the more enjoyable by musical numbers rendered by Mrs. Miles Grigsby and Miss Ruth Sowers and a reading by Mrs. Perle Dunham McGurren. The guests were served with delicious ice cream and cake.

Wichita Primary Results.

Wichita, Kan., March 28.—Complete returns of yesterday's primary give Blase, socialist, 3,683; Graham (dry), 3,652. The names were placed on the ticket for mayor at the regular election.

The socialist vote was the surprise of the election. Blase's lead is in the socialist vote was the surprise of the elect.

Blase's lead is in the class with Milwaukee, where they elected Mayor Seidel, a socialist, some months ago, and attracted wide attention. "We will Milwaukeeize Wichita" was the slogan of the socialist workers as displayed on banners and placards. Blase is a shoemaker.

Durant Will Get Free Delivery.

Durant, Okla., March 29.—The citizens of Durant need not be at all surprised to find within the next ninety days, perhaps sooner, the uniform mail carriers covering a good portion of the city—that portion which has sidewalks.

Postmaster Butler has been informed that State Inspector Leahy of Guthrie, representing the United States Civil Service Department, has recommended to the department at Washington that three mail carriers be put on duty at Durant.

In addition to this, Postmaster Butler has of late received supplies for clerk-carriers, which is an indication that there will be something doing in the free mail delivery business here at a not far distant date.

In the Civil Service examination held in Durant last month, the applicants were examined as to their qualifications as carriers as well as clerks, and there are five eligibles out of the seventeen that were examined.

It is confidently expected at Durant's postoffice that free mail delivery will come within the next ninety days.

THE STATE CAPITAL SUSPENDS.

Yesterday's issue of the Guthrie State Capital was the last. When the territory was thrown open twenty-two years ago Frank Greer was one of the first on the ground, and from that day until the present he has fought the battles of Guthrie and the Republican party of Oklahoma, but circumstances over which he had no control made his fight a losing one. The writer has often had occasion to sharply criticize the Capital, especially when Greer permitted some of his intense anti-Southern sentiments to creep to the surface and when he made some unjustified attack on the Democratic party and the state administration. However, we have never questioned Greer's ability as an editor and have greatly admired his loyalty to his town and the manner in which he has championed her interests. He fought to the last ditch and died with his face to the enemy.

Greer's career affords material for speculating on the uncertainties of a newspaper man's existence, and there is a touch of pathos in it, too. When Oklahoma was thrown open for settlement it was a gamble which town would become the leading city of the state. Indications pointed to Guthrie and there it was that Greer cast his lot. For a number of years prosperity smiled upon him, but a fire cut this short. His loyalty to his town prevented him from accepting a flattering offer to move to Oklahoma City. This was the turning point in his life. At that time Oklahoma City had no real metropolitan paper and was just reaching the city stage of its career. Later the Oklahoman succeeded in securing the state field and overshadowed the Capital. Still Greer held his nerve and fought as hard as ever.

With statehood the administration passed to the democrats and Greer's star declined further towards the horizon. Then came the removal of the capital to Oklahoma City and Greer's star set.

However, Greer is still comparatively a young man and in some rock ribbed Republican state may yet make good. There is little hope for him in Oklahoma, for it is not healthy field for republican papers. Wherever his lot may be cast, Greer can be relied upon to boost the limit for his town and with his admirable bulldog tenacity there is no such thing as downing him permanently.

Sometimes a man works years for fame and at other times he just stumbles over it. A case in point is the German, Ulrich, who recently punched Booker Washington's face. From being absolutely unknown, he sprang into public print throughout the United States in one day, and hereafter will always be pointed out as the man who hit Washington. Now if the fellow who struck Billy Patterson could only be located we would have two of a kind.

There are a number of old city ordinances drawn in territorial days which are modeled on the Arkansas statutes and which are not altogether in conformity with the Oklahoma statutes. It occurs to the News that these should be revised and brought up to the present day and applicable to present day conditions.

President Diaz has attempted to appease the Mexican revolutionists by dismissing his old cabinet and appointing a new one. It reminds us of the Russian throwing one child after another from the sleigh to the pursuing wolves hoping to escape, and it seems just about as ineffectual.

It is said that the skull of Jack Johnson the puglist, is so thick that it required five minutes for the X-ray to penetrate it. That may be a trifle slow but it is not half as long as is required to put a new idea through the skulls of some men we have met in our time.

While Gov. Cruce's veto of the appropriation for the betterment of the normal is a severe disappointment to us, there is the same old comfort in having company in misery. Other places fared no better than Ada.

Coming Into Their Own.

Evolution of governmental institutions is going on all over the world faster than ever before. We think of China as being peculiarly backward, because it is only beginning seriously to consider the experiment of constitutional monarchy. But, then, New Zealand regards us as old-fashioned. We wonder whether Persia and Turkey are going to succeed in their efforts to establish parliamentary government; but, on the other side, Switzerland wonders if the United States will manage to democratize its institutions as the Swiss have democratized theirs, and marvels that we are so slow about it.

Among our own states we can see some curious contrasts. Oregon is sorry for the backwardness of New York, while Massachusetts regards with affrighted concern the radical proposals that are so popular in Washington and Wisconsin.—Ex.

Snowstorm Hits Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., March 28.—From all parts of Kansas and Oklahoma there came today reports of a sudden fall in temperature. Through central Kansas snow is falling and a sandstorm, driven by a cold wind, is sweeping across Oklahoma.

Little damage will result from either the snow or sandstorm, it is thought. Much soil is being carried away from the roots of wheat in Oklahoma, but unless a protracted drouth follows, exposing the roots of the tender shoots to the sun, little harm will result.

Unless it turns much colder tonight horticulturists say, fruit will not be damaged in either Kansas or Oklahoma.

A Lady of Pizarro Tells Story of Awful Suffering That Cardui Finally Relieved.

Pizarro, Va.—"I suffered for several years," writes Mrs. Dorma A. Smith, "with that awful backache and the bearing down sensations, so fully described in your book."

"I tried doctors and other medicines and found little relief, until I was induced to try Wine of Cardui, when I found instant relief and today I can heartily recommend Cardui to all suffering women and think there is no other as good."

In some instances, Cardui gives instant relief; in others, it may take a little time. But in all cases of female trouble Cardui can be depended on to be of benefit, as it is a specific remedy for women and acts in a curative way on the womanly organs.

As a general tonic for women, to build up your strength, improve your appetite, bring back rosy cheeks and make you look and feel young and happy, nothing you can find will do so much for you as Cardui.

MUSKOGEE COUNTY DISARMS 400 DEPUTY CONSTABLES

Muskogee, Okla., March 29.—Four hundred deputy constables in Muskogee county have been ordered to turn in their guns and commissions. Some are refusing the order, which was issued by the county attorney, and three were arrested and thrown into jail Tuesday.

The sheriff and county attorney discovered that 300 or 400 men in the county were carrying guns. It had become a practice when a man wanted to carry a gun to get some constable to appoint him a deputy. This gave them the right to carry a pistol.

It was found that collectors for banks and mercantile houses were Tushka Banker Commits Suicide.

McAlester, March 29.—A telephone message from Atoka to Contractor Gibson, received here this morning, stated that a telegram had been received there announcing the death by suicide of L. R. Teubener, late cashier of the bank at Tushka, who disappeared from Atoka a week ago last Saturday.

On the evening of the day he left home he ate supper in the Katy dining station and went to Muskogee, where he spent Sunday. He was seen in Tulsa the following Monday and that is the last his friend heard from him until the telegram last night.

He is said to have shot himself on a train after leaving Jacksonville for Tampa, Fla. He was about 37 years old and leaves a wife and two children.

For many years he was with the Southern Trust company until he went into the banking business at Tushka.

He had a host of friends and was one of those tireless workers who often break down under the strain. He was for ten years a friend of Dr. Tom Long of this city, who speaks in the highest terms of him. Dr. Long said he was involved that is, he had a large amount of property but was in debt. So far as the bank is concerned, he said, he was satisfied that all was right, and if there was a shortage in his accounts he had heard it was a very small one.

For some ten days before he left home he had been drinking to excess, and it was only recently that he became addicted to drink. His friends believe this disturbed his mind and caused him to commit the act he did.

COURT SUSTAINS THE FELLOW SERVANT'S ACT

Guthrie, Okla., March 28.—The supreme court of the United States, in the case of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway company vs. Richardson, although the case was appealed from Texas, has sustained the validity of the fellow-servant provision in section 36, article 9, of the Oklahoma state constitution. Richardson sustained injuries at Fort Gibson, Okla., while in the employ of the Katy.

Suit was instituted in the district court of Grayson county, Texas, and the railway company answered that said fellow-servant provision was violative of the fourteenth amendment of the federal constitution.

Not only the district court, but also the civil court of appeals and the supreme court of Texas sustained the validity of said provision, affirming a $24,000 judgment, and now the supreme court of the United States, in an opinion by Chief Justice White, also sustains it. This fellow-servant provision was prepared by Justice R. L. Williams of the Oklahoma supreme court when he was chairman of the public service committee in the constitutional convention.

Rev. R. A. Blaylock, who will begin a revival meeting at the Christian church Sunday, arrived this morning and will spend the remainder of the week in getting acquainted with the people and conditions prevailing here.

MRS. M. D. STEINER'S VALUABLE INVENTION

The many Ada friends of Mrs. M. D. Steiner will be pleased to know that that estimable lady has perfected an invention which bids fair to make her a comfortable little fortune. Mrs. Steiner is a woman of strong character and one of many resources, and while congratulating her on her success, the News is in no way surprised. Following is an account of her invention taken from the Salina Journal:

Mrs. M. D. Steiner a Salina woman, is building up a big business in Salina in the manufacture and sale of ice cards, to be used to notify the iceman of the amount of ice wanted. It is no ordinary ice card which Mrs. Steiner makes. It is a "combination" ice card; an ice card with moveable figures. You can nail the card to the side of your house, and change the figures each day by a touch of the hand. And there is no way for the ice man to make a mistake, because the only figure which shows on the card is the one which you intend him to see.

Mrs. Steiner is now selling her ice cards in 20 states, and has thousands upon thousands of the cards in use.

Among the towns which are using the cards are the following:
Great Bend, Kans., Norman, Okla., Corpus Christi, Tex., Garden City, Kans., Big Springs, Tex., Concordia, Kans., Hutchinson, Kas., Grinnell, Ia., Wichita Falls, Tex., Guyton, Ok., Calvert, Tex., Superior, Neb., Bryan, Tex., Denison, Tex., San Angelo, Tex., Holsington, Kan., and during the coming summer they will be used in Salina.

The card is a simple affair; it is strange that it was not invented before. It is made of a fine quality of cardboard, cut in a rectangle with a large round hole in it, and a disk which revolves back of the hole. On the disk are the big black figures showing the number of pounds of ice wanted. The disk may be turned to show any figure desired, and the ice man brings in the number of pounds indicated.

Elected Mrs. Steiner a Member.
Mrs. Steiner attended the meeting of the Western Ice Manufacturing association at Kansas City recently and was specially honored by being elected a member of the association. There are about 5,000 ice dealers in the United States, and Mrs. Steiner has sent a sample of the ice card to nearly all of them. It is expected that the business of the company during the coming year will be much larger than before. Application has been made for a patent on the invention.

Moller Mutterings.

The "Sack Social" given by the ladies Aid Society on Thursday, Mch. 23rd, was a success in every respect. Mrs. J. W. Henderson, Hattie Brooks and Misses Pearl Henderson and Azzie Brooks were the ladies in charge.
The first of the program was made up of several choice selections of music by the Moller Band followed by refreshments in the form of lemonade and cake. After the cake and lemonade was devoured the elegant quilt made by the ladies was sold to the highest bidder. Rev. Maloy then asked the audience to vote thanks to the band boys which was done almost unanimously. The band boys are now wearing a smile that can be seen from the M. O. & G. depot to the east end of Main street.

Mrs. A. M. Watts is very low with pneumonia.

Mr. J. W. Henderson says a "Shelter in the Time of Storms" and he is digging a large and safe storm house. A number of Moller citizens were Allen visitors Sunday the 19th and all report a splendid time.

Maxwell Sittings.

A regular sand storm visited our neighborhood last Sunday evening. Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tyson Saturday 26th inst., a baby girl. Mother and babe doing well.

The literary Friday night was all that could be expected; simply good. The telephone line from here to Stratford is a "sure thing" and before long we will be ready to talk with the Stratford people as well as with Ada.

Mrs. S. R. Threlkeld of Stratford, is visiting at Mr. Dial's and Sam came out to Maxwell and called to see his wife and babies.

Mr. Dial and family went to Galey Chapel Sunday and taken dinner with J. B. and Allen Wall.

Mr. George Ritter has measles but is able to be up some at this writing, and we guess there will be lots more that will have them.

S. M. Dial, J. P. Walker and E. D. Tyson made a business trip to Stratford in interest of the proposed telephone line last Friday.

The farmers are about through planting corn and have most of their cotton land ready to plant.

MOREY STOCK CO.

MAKING GOOD

Last evening the Morey Stock Company made another hit with the public, the play being the "Vagabond's Wife."

This company is one of the best that ever came to Ada. Its plays are clean and of a high order, while the actors themselves are not only a talented group, but their conduct is at all times perfectly decorous, a fact that speaks volumes for the character of the company.

Although this is the first visit of the company to Ada, Manager Murphy has toured Oklahoma for a number of years. In his circuit his company has visited Ardmore for ten successive years.

This evening's play will be "Anita, the Singing Girl."

FORGOT TO RETURN BORROWED TEAM

Monday about 11 o'clock, W. C. Long, borrowed a team and buggy from Wm. McDaniel north of town, saying he wanted to come to Ada to buy some groceries and that he would return by 3 o'clock. He evidently forgot that part of his promise, for he never showed up. Yesterday Mr. McDaniel and the sheriff's office got busy. Deputy Cal Bolin located the buggy and one horse 8 miles south of Stonewall. The fellow had swapped the other horse off and decamped with the one he had secured in its place. No further trace of him has been found since.

A Dollar Social.

Monday afternoon the ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a "Dollar Social" at Mrs. W. G. Currie's. Each lady is to bring a dollar and tell in rhyme how she earned it. The proceeds will be used in purchasing a carpet for the church. All ladies of the church invited to be present. 304-1td is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin of Manchester, O. (R. R. No. 2) for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote, "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you, Asthma, Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages fly before it. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by Ramsey Drug Co.
